Road To Home Realty Fair Housing Policy

Effective Date: February 14, 2026

At Road to Home Realty, we believe that everyone deserves a fair and equal opportunity to find their perfect home. We are fully committed to upholding the principles of the Fair Housing Act and ensuring that our services are accessible, inclusive, and free from discrimination.

1. Our Commitment

Road to Home Realty strictly prohibits discrimination in housing-related services based on:

- Race or color
- National origin
- Religion
- Sex (including gender identity and sexual orientation)
- Familial status
- Disability

We extend this commitment to all aspects of our business, including property listings, marketing, client interactions, and partnerships.

2. Equal Access for All

We strive to ensure that:

- All listings are presented fairly and accurately
- All clients receive the same level of service, respect, and professionalism
- Our website and communications are accessible to individuals with disabilities
- Our agents and staff are trained to recognize and prevent discriminatory practices

3. Agent Responsibilities

Every Road to Home Realty agent is expected to:

- Treat all clients and prospects with dignity and impartiality
- Provide equal access to housing opportunities
- Avoid steering, redlining, or any form of bias in property recommendations
- Report any suspected violations of Fair Housing laws to management immediately

4. Reporting Concerns

If you believe you've experienced discrimination in connection with our services, we encourage you to contact us directly. You may also file a complaint with the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) at www.hud.gov/fairhousing.
